

Agency: Commerce, Community and Economic Development*Grants to Municipalities (AS 37.05.315)*Grant Recipient: Anchorage*Project Title:

Anchorage - Kincaid Elementary School - New Computers For Teachers

State Funding Requested: $ 36,000*House District: 27 - N

One-Time Need

Brief Project Description:

Purchase new laptops for teachers; improve school instructional program.

Funding Plan:*Total Cost of Project: $36,000Funding Secured*Amount FY*Other Pending Requests*Amount FY*Anticipated Future Need*Amount FY*

There is no other funding needed

Detailed Project Description and Justification:

Kincaid teachers are already trained on the use of laptop computers. Our 32 certified teachers will be supplied with mac ibooks. Support teams of teacher tech leaders will support and train those needing tech support.

Our building serves over 500 students. The student population features a wide range of skills and readiness. Gifted, Bilingual, Native American, Special Needs and Intensive needs students are present. Students will benefit from the following teacher outcomes.

Teachers reacquaint themselves with the joy and challenge of learning.

Teachers experience new ways of thinking, learning, and expressing one's knowledge.

Teachers become more collaborative with students and colleagues.

Authentic opportunities to learn with/from students emerge.

Professionalism and self-esteem are elevated.

Teachers have ability to collaborate with teachers around the world.

New organization, curriculum and assessment structures emerge.

Total Project Snapshot Report

FY 2009 Capital Budget

TPS Report 49073

Laptops provide personal space for creating, exploring and collecting ideas, work and knowledge in a more fluid manner.

Laptops provide a learning laboratory for intellectual exploration and creative expression.

Learning extends beyond the walls and hours of the school

Project Timeline:

Equipment will be purchased when funds become available.

Entity Responsible for the Ongoing Operation and Maintenance of this Project:

Anchorage School District

Grant Recipient Contact Information:

Contact Name: Janet Wells, PTA President

Phone Number: 907-345-5530

Address: 4900 Raspberry Rd. Anchorage, AK 99503

Email:

Has this project been through a public review process at the local level and is it a community priority? ☒ Yes ☐ No

Capital request Form

Jane here is the general response to the boxes 1 & 3 . I do not know how to respond to other boxes

1

Laptops for teachers are needed. Computer assisted instruction enables teachers to differentiate instruction based on student readiness, needs, skills, and interest. Authentic opportunities to learn, create and communicate with students emerge. Students and teachers collaborate to think, learn and express knowledge.

2

$35,168 (32 computers at $1099.00)

3

Kincaid teachers are already trained on the use of laptop computers. Our 32 certified teachers will be supplied with mac ibooks. Support teams of teacher tech leaders will support and train those needing tech support.

Our building serves over 500 students. The student population features a wide range of skills and readiness. Gifted, Bilingual, Native American, Special Needs and Intensive needs students are present. Students will benefit from the following teacher outcomes.

Teachers reacquaint themselves with the joy and challenge of learning.

Teachers experience new ways of thinking, learning, and expressing one's knowledge.

Teachers become more collaborative with students and colleagues.

Authentic opportunities to learn with/from students emerge.

Professionalism and self-esteem are elevated.

Teachers have ability to collaborate with teachers around the world.

New organization, curriculum and assessment structures emerge.

Laptops provide personal space for creating, exploring and collecting ideas, work and knowledge in a more fluid manner.

Laptops provide a learning laboratory for intellectual exploration and creative expression.

Learning extends beyond the walls and hours of the school.